

- LMS Start Page
- Introduction
- Pre-test
- Cook County Dept. of Public Health
- Understanding Mass Dispensing
- How to Dispense Medications
- Dispensing Drill
- Post-test
- Conclusion

- Introduction
- Mission and Jurisdiction
- Role of Public Health
- Current Planning Efforts
- Assess Your Understanding
- Summary

- Introduction
- Bacterial Agents
  - Anthrax
  - Tularemia
  - Plague
- Assess Your Understanding
- Summary

- Prophylaxis Medications
  - Doxycycline
  - Ciprofloxacin
  - Amoxicillin
- Assess Your Understanding
- Summary

- Dispensing Protocols
  - Dispensing Decisions (Algorithm)
  - Decision Process
  - Forms
  - Dosages
- Assess Your Understanding
- Summary

- CDC Video footage
- VIDEO CADE - read text from script
- VIDEO CADE - interview questions
- Interactive re-enforcement exercise

- Introduction
- Mass Dispensing and its context (Introduction)
- What is Mass Dispensing
- Origins of Public Health Crises
- Agents of Disease or Injury
- Alternatives to Mass Dispensing
- Communities at Risk
- Assess Your Understanding
- Summary

- Mass Dispensing: National & State Response
  - NIMS: The National Incident Management System
  - ICS: Incident Command System
- Strategic National Stockpile
- Material Timeline
- Assess Your Understanding
- Summary

- Mass Dispensing in Action
  - Points of Dispensing (POD)
  - How is a POD Managed?
  - POD Roles and Responsibilities
- Summary

- Quarantine
- Isolation
- Predicting Emergencies and Ongoing/Known Risks
- Fictional Scenario

- What is a POD?
- What kinds of public health emergencies require a POD?
- Where will the POD be located?
- Who would staff a POD?
- What are the basic components of a POD?
- How does a POD work?
- When will POD workers receive prophylaxis?

- POD Phases/Timeline
- What are the functions of the various sections in a POD? How does the POD use ICS?
- When will POD workers receive prophylaxis?

- When and where will I respond?
- How long will I be working at a POD?
- What should I bring with me?
- How will I know what to do?
- Job Action Sheets
- How are roles assigned?
- Will I be trained?
- Will I be protected?
- What do I do when it's time to leave?